

Tecumseh Valley by Townes Van Zandt (G)

DGC The name she G gave was C Caro G line - the C daughter of a G miner, and her C ways were free and Bm it seemed to Em me, the D sunshine walked beside C her G C

C She came from G Spencer C 'cross the G hill, C She said her Pa had G sent her cause the C coal was low, and Bm soon the Em snow would D turn the skies to C winter G C

C Well she said she'd G come C to look for G work C she was not seeking G favor for a C dime a day and a Bm place to Em stay She'd D turn those hands to C labor G C

The C times were hard Lord C and the jobs were few C all through Tecumseh Valley but she C asked around and a Bm job she Em found tending D bar for Gypsy C Sally's G C

But she C saved e G nough to C get back G home when C spring replaced the G winter, but her C dreams were denied her Bm Pa had Em died the D word came down from C Spencer G C

She C turned to G whorin' C out in the G streets C with all the lust inside G her - it was C many a man re Bm turned a Em gain to D lay himself beside C her G C

Well they C found her G down C beneath the G stairs C that led to Gypsy G Sally's - in her C hand when she died was a Bm note that Em cried - fare thee D well Tecumseh C Valley
G C

Well the C name she G gave was C Caro G line - the C daughter of a miner, and her C ways were free and it Bm seemed to Em me
The D sunshine walked beside C her G
