...COME ALL YE ROLLING MINSTRELS... by Fairport Convention

from 'Liege & Lief' (1969)

Intro:

D

Verse 1:

D A D A G D
Come all ye rolling minstrels, and to-gether we will try.
D A D A G D
To rouse the spirit of the earth, and move the rolling sky.

Verse 2:

D A D A G D
Those that dance, will start to dance, and those who don't, will stay.
D A D A G D
In time to list our merry tune, that we play for you to-day.

Chorus 1:

Am D
So come all ye rolling minstrels, and together we will try.
D A D A G D
To rouse the spirit of the earth, and move the rolling sky.

Interlude:

D

Verse 3:

D A D A G D
Our fiddler, he just loves to play, and that's why he plays so good.
D A D A G D
And now he plays a vio-lin, made out of solid wood.

Chorus 2:

Am D
So come all ye rolling minstrels, and together we will try.

D A D A G D
To rouse the spirit of the earth, and move the rolling sky.

Interlude:

D
Verse 4:

D A D A G D
Pos-sessor of the magic touch, and no ma-gician he.
D A D A G D
Will play for you some magic notes in-stead, as you will see.

Chorus 3:

Am D
So come all ye rolling minstrels, and together we will try.
D A D A G D
To rouse the spirit of the earth, and move the rolling sky.

Interlude:

D
Verse 5:

D A D A G D
Sound of beating on the drum, song be-hind, you'll hear.
D A D A G D
And to the rhythm of gui-tar, we hope you'll lend an ear.

Chorus 4:

Am D
So come all ye rolling minstrels, and together we will try.
D A D A G D
To rouse the spirit of the earth, and move the rolling sky.

Interlude:

D
Verse 6:

D A D A G D
Well, the man who plays the bass, does make, those low notes that you hear.
D A D A G D
And the high notes come from you and me, for we will sing so clear.

Chorus 5:

Am D
So come all ye rolling minstrels, and together we will try.
D A D A G D
To rouse the spirit of the earth, and move the rolling sky.

Outro:
