

Tennessee Mountain Home - Dolly Parton

Capo 2

|G |C
Sittin' on the front porch on a sunny afternoon
|G |D |G
on a straight back chair on two legs leaned against the wall
|C
Watch the kids all playin' with june bugs on a string
|G |D |G
Chase the glowin' firefly as the evening shadows fall

|--------|---|
| Chorus | C G D G |
| | In my Tennessee mountain home life is as peaceful as a baby's sigh. |
| | C G D G |
| | In my Tennessee mountain home drinkin' singin' it feels div-ine. |

|G |C
Honey-suckle vine grows on the fence along the way
|G |D |G
It's summer fragrance makes the wind so sweet
|C
And on a distant hill top an eagle spreads it's wings
|G |D |G
a song bird on the fence post sings a melo-dy.

[CHORUS]

|G |C
Walkin' home from school on sunday with the one you love
|G |D |G
Laughin', talkin', makin' future plans
|C
When the folks 'aint lookin' you might steal a kiss or two
|G |D |G
Sittin' on the porch swing holdin' hands.

[CHORUS]
