

Tennessee Mountain Home - Dolly Parton

|A |D
Sittin' on the front porch on a sunny afternoon
|A |E |A
on a straight back chair on two legs leaned against the wall
|D
Watch the kids all playin' with june bugs on a string
|A |E |A
Chase the glowin' firefly as the evening shadows fall

Chorus	D A E A In my Tennessee mountain home life is as peaceful as a baby's sigh.
	D A E A In my Tennessee mountain home drinkin' singin' it feels div-ine.

|A |D
Honey-suckle vine grows on the fence along the way
|A |E |A
It's summer fragrance makes the wind so sweet
|D
And on a distant hill top an eagle spreads it's wings
|A |E |A
a song bird on the fence post sings a melo-dy.

[CHORUS]

|A |D
Walkin' home from school on sunday with the one you love
|A |E |A
Laughin', talkin', makin' future plans
|D
When the folks 'aint lookin' you might steal a kiss or two
|A |E |A
Sittin' on the porch swing holdin' hands.

[CHORUS]
