

CORRINE, CORRINA - Bob Wills / Merle Haggard / Bob Dylan mashup

Bob Wills	[D] I love Corrina; tell the world I do ... [D7] I love Cor-[G] rina; tell the world I [D] do Just a little more [A7] lovin'; Let your heart beat [D] true. [D] Corrine, Corrina; Where've you been so long? ... [D7] Corrine, Cor-[G] rina; Where've you been so [D] long? Ain't had no [A7] lovin'; Since you've been [D] gone. Corrine, Corrina; Where'd you stay last night? Corrine, Corrina; Where'd you stay last night? Came home this mornin'; Sun was shinin' bright. Goodbye Corrina; This is fare thee well Goodbye Corrina; This is fare thee well When I get back, Babe; Lawd! you never can tell.
Merle Haggard	I met Corrina; far across the sea I met Corrina; far across the sea She didn't write me no letter; She doesn't care for me. I love Corrina; I'll tell the world I do Oh, I love Corrina; I'll tell the world I do Can't wait'll Corrina, says: "I love you too."
Bob Dylan	I got a bird that whistles, I got a bird that sings I got a bird that whistles, I got a bird that sings But I ain't a-got Corina, life don't mean a thing Corine Corina, gal you're on my mind Corine Corina, gal you're on my mind I was sittin' down thinkin' of you, I can't keep from cryin'.

"Corrine, Corrina" (sometimes "Corrina, Corrina") is a 12-bar country blues song in the AAB form. "Corrine, Corrina" was first recorded by Bo Carter (Brunswick 7080, December 1928). However, it was not copyrighted until 1932 by Armenter "Bo Carter" Chatmon and his publishers, Mitchell Parish and J. Mayo Williams.
