

Emmaus - Stumpy, FLASH June 2022 - "Naturally, I said yes"

C G F ad nauseum

[C] We'll I was trudging down the road
With my [G] bundle and my load
Just [F] trying to get my junk down to [C] Emmaus
[C] When a nasty looking dude
In a [G] beanie and a snood
Come [F] riding right along be[C]side us

[C] His face it was a twitching
And his [G] donkey's tail was switching
He was [F] mumbling something mean about some [C] Jesus
[C] And then his face it turned a purple
And he [G] made a throaty slurp
And he [F] fell and hit his head upon the [C] curble

[C] We'll I rushed right over to him
And his [G] tongue he was a'chewin
And I [F] figured he was just about a [C] goner
[C] When a stillness came upon him
He [G] smiled like Helen Bonham
And a [F] wind came rushing out from down his [C] bottom

[C] He gripped my arm and squeezed it
It was [G] painful as a vise
His [F] eyes they were as hard and cold as [C] ice
[C] He said 'brother I am changed'
I thought [G] 'yeah, you are deranged,
But [F] maybe you won't kill me if I'm [C] nice'.

[C] He said 'This morning I was Saul,
And [G] now my name is Paul
The [F] hand of God came down and slapped me [C] straight
[C] You saw it as plain as I,
You were [G] standing by my side
And [F] now you must become my di[C]sciple'

[C] Well this was sure an awkward spot
In the [G] hands of this crack-pot
[F] Wondering how I'd escape a[C]live
[C] So I quickly settled on what's best
And [G] snuggled up into his chest
And, [F] naturally, I answered, [C] "Yes'.

And, [F] naturally, I answered, [C] "Yes'.
And, [F] naturally, I answered, [C] "Yes'.
