

Salomé, Jed Rivers

E B D A E

E B D A E

You could have half the world but you wanted more

E B D A E

You dance you danced you astonished the crown, Half the world could be yours

E B D A E

Through your sways and your rhythm you mesmerized You were not to be ignored

E B D A E

We had never witnessed such rapture and joy pure seduction was all that you wore

E B D A E

Your desire was given as promised through tears and dismay

E B D A E

One would never had thought that you'd ask for John Baptista's head on a tray

C#m G#m

Salome, where are you coming from

A E

Salome where have you been

C#m G#m

You are offered half the world in gold

A E

Oh Salomé, Salomé

E B D A E

At my birthday, at my party, Right in front of all of my guests

E B D A E

You came dancing, and dropped at my feet And for your beauty I offered one final request

C#m G#m

But did you really have to ask for

A E

Such a thing to take away

E B D A E

I will cry out forever through my lifetime Oh Salomé touché Salomé

C#m G#m

Salomé, where are you coming from

A E

Salome what is it that you want

E B D A E

You are offered half the world in gold Salomé oh so nonchalant

E B D A E

You are offered half the world in gold Salomé oh Salomé
