

I didn't think you'd notice. Jed Rivers

(Am) I woke up late last night Just (D)dreaming I was lost
In a (C) sweat I knew that I (G) gave it all away

(Am) I keep shifting my inner thoughts And it's (D)tearing at my heart
I am (C)wondering if it (G)was all in (Am)vane.

(Am) I didn't think you'd notice me this (D)morning As you (C)woke From the (G)comfort of your (Am) room.
Didn't think you'd see it as a (D)warning Of our day (C)together (G)starting all to (Am)soon

I didn't see you acting any differently Or finding any solace in my words
Didn't see you reaching out to see how I was feeling Didn't know if my words were really heard

I was turning with my two feet To the rhythms of the jays
When I thought there is nothing more to say

If our fortunes bring us closer to each other hiWe may live to see the moonlight guide our way

We may find our footing on the path we're walking on We may stumble on The Dawning of the day
