

Snob (Stumpy, FLASH Nov 2022)

You're [C] different than [F] me,
You don't [C] question where you [F] stand
And [C] every little [F] idea's
Got a [C] permanent [F] slot in your [G] mind

Your [C] life has a [F] plan
It's all [C] black and [F] white
You've got [C] blinkers on your [F] eyes
And [C] they don't [F] let in much [G] light

You're hard as steel
But you're brittle as ice
You start from no
And that's as far as you'll go

[D] And how do you ignore that we're wrong half the [G] time?
[D] How do you believe that everyone else is [G] blind? (Oh, you're such a snob)

It freaks me out sometimes
When we agree
You're a bigot in your way
With not much empa-thy

You listen to yourself
And not much else
You hear an echo on your left
Got one deaf ear on your right

You're not so different
Than the people you hate
You just disagree
And you wish each other were dead

[D] And how do you ignore that we're wrong half the [G] time?
[D] How do you believe that everyone else is [G] blind?
