

Favorite Things Jed Rivers

V1:

Are you earthbound in your nature do you fly up when you need to
Are you a quiet somewhat recluse
Or do you favor lots of noise

Is the din of city footfalls
The kind of pulsing walking patterns
That excite the kid within you
And fill you with its joys

V2:

Does the smell of early mornings
On a slow untrodden pathway
Bring you closer to your nature
And inspire holy claims

Can an ocean draw you into
Your primal way of living
Does the wetness of the water
Soothe the blood within your veins

Chorus:

Oh who would you be
And what would you do
Where would you go
If you could do it all again

Tell me who would you be
And what would you do
Would you go it alone
Would you want to bring a friend

Bridge.

Will you tell us of your dreams about the time you flew to heaven
Tell us of your dream
when you flew into the night
Tell us of your dreams
when you soared above the mountains
Tell us of your dreams
When you get to be yourself

V3

I am asking out of friendship
And a need to make connection
As I also harbor dreams
In my head beneath this crown

I will share with you my longings
Over lukewarm cups of coffee
And a bagel with some jelly
At a spot I know downtown.

Chorus:

Oh who would you be
And what would you do
Where would you go
If you could do it all again

Tell me who would you be
And what would you do
Would you look to find comfort
From the start until the end
