

Icarus , Jed Rivers

V1

He had vowed to fly higher and learn more than he knew
It didn't really matter the outcome
He wanted to see, he needed to see the world that he lived in, from an eagle's view

V2

He had spent much time alone, and had learned from the old
He was ready for something to brighten his day
He had dreamed of a world on the other side
He was willing to go for the bold

Chorus

Icarus, oh Icarus, the world is yours
If you make it to the other side
They will paint your flight for eternity
Your bravery amazed us all.

V3

We remember his name, We remember his plight
We remember what all came to be There we others who challenged the rule of the the weak
Who soared past the bounds with delight

V4

Eagles fly alone, they leave the pack behind
They dare to dream a bigger dream
They look within to the other side
Their life becomes sublime

Chorus

Icarus, oh Icarus, the world is yours
If you make it to the other side
They will paint your flight for eternity
Your bravery amazed us all.
