

NEW YEARS RESOLUTION

Sabodog

[Am7] I have a quandary, I [D7] want to tell you about, it's a [F] mixed up set of feelings that are [Am7] hard to get around.

[Am7] The first is an anxious impulse to [D7] get it all done, the second is a fog that [F] turns it all to [Am7] gum.

CHORUS

[F] So what should I [C] do? [F] How can I get [C] through?
[Am7] Every day I [D7] ask myself, and [F] now I'm asking [C] you.

[Am7] There are things I do that work and [D7] things I do that won't. The [F] quick fixes they pull at me but the [Am7] real solutions don't.

[Am7] I'm getting older and, [D7] even a little wiser, but [F] every day I still have to go and [Am7] face the fire.

CHORUS

[F] So what should I [C] do? [F] How can I get [C] through?
[Am7] Every day I [D7] ask myself, and [F] now I'm asking [C] you.

[Am7] Some days are magic, [D7] filled with joys and visions. Other [F] days are just OK, but who doesn't have that [Am7] schism?

[Am7] I'm not here to complain or [D7] hand out any solutions, I'm just [F] want to share with you my [Am7] New Year's resolution.

CHORUS

[F] Sit still and think it [C] through, [F] don't run or push or [C] pull.
[Am7] I'll let it go and [D7] let it be and let the [F] heart sing its tune.

[F] So that's what I'll [C] do, [F] that's how I'll get [C] through. [Am7] Every day I'll ask [D7] my heart [F] to try and sing it [C] true.
