| Oh Boy Jed Rivers 1  |
|--|
| Am G   |
| Oh boy oh boy, what are we gonna do  |
| Am G   |
| Seems like there's a riot happening at the zoo   |
| Am G   |
| The animals are up in arms, feeling all a flutter  |
| Am G   |
| Trying to keep their distance far away from one another Am   |
| Oh boy oh boy  |
| 2  |
| They've done it once before, maybe twice but then who's counting You can feel it in the air, there's tension on the mountain The highest up complain, send those jackals to the ground They'll only cause us trouble and bring our stature down Oh boy oh boy  |
| 3  |
| We can place the pheasants in a box, keep 'em outta sight  |
| And round up all the buffalo, they really only fight   |
| The kangaroos jump and punch, the ocelots will vouch   |
| They steal the food off others plates and hide it in their pouch   |
| Oh boy oh boy  |
| Chorus   |
| C G  |
| The lower castes will do just fine they really don't need more   |
| C G  |
|  |
|  |
| Just stuff 'em in with their own kind and quickly shut the door  |
| Just stuff 'em in with their own kind and quickly shut the door  D  C  It's because we're kind and loving, and always we forgive   |

| Am G   |
| Now the monkeys, we monkeys, we're really quite the rage   |
| Am G   |
| We rule the roost and run the show, you can't put us in a cage.  |
| Am G   |
| We are smart and wise and sturdy, it's known throughout age  |
| Am G   |
| That we are meant to run the show, you can't put us in a cage.   |
| D A C G  |
| No no no. No no no. No no no.  |
| Am   |
| Oh boy   |
