

You Can't Put All the Monkeys in the Same Cage - Toby

C A D G+
Well you can take a trip to Palm Beach, and leave your suit behind

C A D F
You can tie your dog on to your station wagon roof

C A D G+
You can throw your life savings into looking half your age

C F C
But you can't put all the monkeys in the same cage

C A D G+
You can find the house of bottles, in Marengo Illinois

C A D F
And liquor and wine and smoke yourself to sleep

C A D G+
write the next great novel, have them hanging off the page

C F C C7
But you can't put all the monkeys in the same cage

F F
Sometimes one or two, could fit inside you car

C C C C7
But you had better buckle them in for real

F F F F
And if you turn around to check, cause they're making too much noise

F#dim F#dim G
They might just knock you out and grab the wheel

C A D G+
The anthropologists busy making all their lists

C A D F
keep telling us, they don't get our abstractions

C A D G+
You can hand a few a microphone and you can put them on the stage

C F C A
But you can't put all the monkeys in the same cage, no sir

D7 F C A
No you can't put all the monkeys in the same cage, no ma'am

D7 G C G C7-----
Said you can't put all the monkeys in the same cage

